McADOO SURRENDERS POSTS TO RETRIEVE PERSONAL FORTUNE

Son-in-law of President Resigns After Six Strenuous Years as Secretary of Treasury and War-time Director General of Roads.

Washington, Nov. 22.—William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, director general of railroads and often discussed as one of the presidential possibilities in 1920, has resigned his offices to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr. McAdoo will give up the treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been selected. He wished to lay down his work as director general of railroads by January 1, but will remain if the president has not then chosen a successor.

Upon the new secretary of the treasury, whoever he may be, will devolve the task of financing the nation through the transition period of war to peace, which probably will include at least two more Liberty Loans and possibly also a further revision of system of war taxation.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public today with the approval of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the president's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

Mr. McAdoo's letter of resignation, dated November 14, follows: "Dear Mr. President: "Now that an armistice has been signed and peace is assured, I feel at liberty to advise you of my desire to return, as soon as possible, to private life.

"I have been conscious for some time of the necessity for this step, but, of course, I could not consider it while the country was at war.

"For almost six years I have worked incessantly under the pressure of great responsibilities. Their exacting nature have drawn heavily on my strength. The inadequate compensation allowed by law to cabinet officers (as you know I receive no compensation as director general of railroads) and the very burdensome cost of living in Washington have so depleted my personal resources that I am obliged to reckon with the facts of the situation.

"I do not wish to convey the impression that there is any actual impairment of my health, because such is not the fact. As a result of long overwork I need a reasonable period of genuine rest to replenish my energy. But more than this, I must, for the sake of my family, get back to private life, to retrieve my personal fortune.

"I cannot secure the required rest nor the opportunity to look after my long neglected private affairs until I am relieved of my present responsibilities.

"I am anxious to have my retirement effected with the least possible inconvenience to yourself and to the public service, but I would, I think, be wise to accept my resignation now, as secretary of the treasury, to become effective upon the appointment and qualification of my successor so that he may have the opportunity and advantage of participating promptly in the formulation of the policies that should govern the future work of the treasury. I would suggest that my resignation as director general of railroads become effective January 1, 1919, or upon the appointment of my successor.

"I hope you will understand, my dear Mr. President, that I will permit nothing but the most important demands to force me withdrawal from public life. Always I shall cherish as the greatest honor of my career the opportunity you have so generously given me to serve the country under

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR CONVENTION OF R. R. CLERKS DEC. 16

More Than 100 Delegates Are Expected to Attend the Santa Fe System Convention of Brotherhood Railway Clerks.

Members of Albuquerque Lodge, No. 251 of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, which met at the courthouse last night, announced that the arrangements for the coming convention of the Santa Fe system of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, which will be held December 16, have been practically completed.

The meeting last night at the courthouse was attended by nearly all of the local clerks and a committee was named for entertainment of the guests at the convention. A hotel committee was also appointed.

Latest figures indicate that nearly one hundred delegates will attend the convention aside from a large number of others interested in the convention work. The meeting will probably last for three or four days, depending on the amount of work which may develop.

As the organization is practically new here, it was discovered that there was no official to hold the office of past president. This honor was unanimously voted to Lewis Gittman, who has been more than twenty-five years' service in the office of the company.

Local Men to Attend A Meeting of Kiwanis Clubs in Texas Soon

If the Spanish influenza ban is lifted by the first week in December the Kiwanis will hold their regular annual meeting of officers during that week. Delegates will also be named to represent Albuquerque at a meeting to be held in El Paso to complete district organization of Kiwanis clubs in West Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

The date of the convention to be held in El Paso is December 19, 20 and 21. It is understood that representatives will also be sent from Phoenix and other cities in the southwest.

Women of France Spurn Plea From German Mothers

Paris, Nov. 22.—The national council of French women has declined to intercede with the French government to mitigate the terms of the German armistice. In reply to a message published in the press from German women to Madame Jules Siegfried, president of the council, the council yesterday unanimously adopted this resolution:

"No. We will not intercede with our government to mitigate the conditions of the armistice which are only too justified by the manner in which Germany has waged war.

In the course of these tragic years German women believing victory was certain, remained silent at the orders of their government, their army and their navy.

"At the congress at The Hague, to which we refused to go, the president of the national council of German women was invited to protest against the violation of Belgium and against the torpedoing of the Lusitania. She wrote in reply:

"We are as one with our people. The men who took the responsibility for Germany's decisions are as dear to us as those who are shedding their blood for us on the battle field.

Las Vegas Stands No Nonsense About Spanish Influenza

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 22.—The board of health adopted a resolution at its last meeting to inspect every house where a case of influenza exists. Anyone who unreasonably enters such a house will be fined $25. The board of health of the firm of Barberbach Bros. was fined $10 Tuesday for allowing more than five persons on the floor of his place of business. These stringent measures have been adopted on account of the increased number of cases reported since the election and the peace celebration.

It is expected that work on the new postoffice building for the year side will soon be started. Before the ban on all public building was put in force by the government, the site on Douglas avenue had been chosen and all preliminary surveys made. Now that the war is over, Postmaster Long and several prominent citizens have been in touch with officials in Washington and have been assured that work will be resumed here early next year. A new government building will be especially appreciated, as the postoffice business has outgrown its present facilities, and is badly in need of more room to maintain its high standard of efficiency.

For any itching skin trouble, psoriasis, eczema, salt rheum, hives, itch, scald head, herpes, scabies, Dean's Ointment is highly recommended. 66c a bar at all stores.
